

Application Guide for 2023 CSC Scholarship - High level Graduate Program

As one of China's key universities under the direct leadership of the Ministry of Education, CUFU enjoys the patronage of both the central and municipal governments, including the Ministry of Education, the Ministry of Finance, and Beijing municipal government.

CUFE is selected into the Double First Class Initiative, a national project with the goal of fostering world standards in China's universities. The university is also listed in Project 211. In addition, CUFU is among the first universities to enter Project 985 Innovation Platform, whose objective is to promote scientific research of high-priority areas in the fields' top institutions.

The university's applied economics is rated A+ by the Ministry of Education in the latest round of national academic evaluation and the only university in the field of finance and economics in China rated A+ in applied economics.

CUFE's Chinese Government Scholarship-High level Graduate Program, sponsored by the Chinese government, is a full scholarship that provides funding for international students studying full-time in China. The scholarship covers tuition fee, accommodation fee, monthly stipends, and insurance fee.

Important reminders on application documents

All application documents must be in Chinese or English. Documents not in Chinese or English must be notarized and translated into Chinese or English. Application documents and application fee will NOT be returned regardless of admission status.

All documents submitted must be true, accurate, and complete. CUFE reserves the right to withdraw offers of admission or expel enrolled students otherwise.

Evaluation

Applicants who have passed academic document review will be shortlisted for online interview. Interview time will be sent by e-mail. Therefore, the email address left in the application system must be authentic and valid for a long time.

Admission

According to the interview results, CUFE should select the best candidates and report to the China Scholarship Council that will organize expert review.

CUFE will officially release CSC final results after the expert review.

Review of Documents

After admission results are released, CUFE will conduct another round of document review. If violations are found, the university reserves the right to withdraw the admission decision and cancel the applicant's admission.

Registration

According to the rules and regulations of China's Ministry of Education, CUFE requires that all international students (including scholarship students) purchase comprehensive group insurance in mainland China. Students should purchase it before entering China.

Scholarship students must register during the time specified in the admission letters. Students who fail to register by the deadline without justifiable reasons will be regarded as giving up the scholarship.

Registration time: early September 2023 (please refer to the admission letters for specific dates).

Evaluation and Re-evaluation of Admission Qualifications

CUFE will evaluate and re-evaluate students' admission qualifications upon and after registration. If admission letters, personal information, or other documents are found to be inaccurate during the evaluations or if fraud, malpractice, and other similar circumstances exist, the scholarship student will be disqualified and admission will be cancelled.
